

Memories of the 1970s

Cllr Abdul Mukit MBE

Cllr Abdul Mukit has been a prominent anti-racist activist in the 1970s in East London.

Remembering 4th May 1978

We should never forget the legacy left by the death of Altab Ali in 1978, and as one of the original campaigners, I would say that we need to remember that racism and discrimination of any kind have no place in our communities, and we need to continue our work to wipe it out.
